A REMARKABLE PEOPLE.

A Sect Among Whom There are no Criminals.

The Slavonic novelist, M. Sacher-Masoch, has recently given an interesting lecture to a Paris audience on the Jewish sects in Galicia, in the course of which he described the Karaites, who acknowledged only the first book of Moses as their religious guide. The Karaites, said the eminent Jewish author, are the Jansenites of Judaism. They base their beliefs on the love of the divine; they are virtuous for virtue's sake. Where reason and revelation agree, they say, "we accept them as two excellent things, but where they disagree we must hold with revelation, for if reason had been sufficient, revelations would have been superfluous." The Karaites consider that it is not allowed to discuss the fundamental bases of revelation. Another of their precepts is: "If you cannot do that which you would like to do, you must be willing to do what you can." The life of the Karaites is very virtuous; they pray in Hebrew with bent heads; in the East they never light a fire, and in Galicia, where the climate is more rigorous they let Christians light it for them. The sect numbers about 40,000 in Galicia. One peculiarity by which they are distinguished from all other Jews is that they consider that commerce in goods which they themselves have not produced to be illicit, for which reason they are all agriculturists or stewards. Until lately they were exempt from military service, but at present they are employed in the ambulances. M. Sacher-Masoch states on the authority of a historian that no Karaite has been condemned in any law court in Poland for the last four centuries.

THE PEABODY BEQUEST.

A Statement of its Present Condition.

The London Times contains the following: The 22d annual report of the Trustees of the Peabody Donation Fund has been issued. The report, after a reference to the lamented death of the Earl of Iddesleigh, who for the past 18 years has taken an active part in the affairs of the trust, announce that the net gain of the year from rents and interest has been £29,654 5s 5d. The sum given and bequeathed by Mr. Peabody was, in 1862, £150,000; in 1866, £100,000; in 1868, £100,000, and in 1873, £150,000, making a total of £500,000, to which has been added money received for rent and interest, £410,668 3s 1d, making the total fund on the 31st of December last £910,668 3s 1d. Of the £900,000 borrowed of the Public Works Loan Commissioners and others, mentioned in the last report, the trustees have paid off £28,668 13s 4d, leaving a balance unpaid of £301,333 6s 9d. Within the past year the trustees have expended on land and buildings £5,911,11s 8d, making the total expenditures to the end of the year £1,216,462 2s 7d, and during the year five blocks of buildings at Old Pie street, Westminster, containing 262 rooms, have been opened. Up to the end of the year the trustees have provided for the artisan and laboring poor of London 11,150 rooms besides bath-rooms, laundries and wash-houses, occupied by 20,228 persons. These rooms comprise 5,014 separate dwellings—say 74 of four rooms, 1,782 of three rooms, 2,350 of two rooms, and 808 of one room.

The Care of Hogs.

An eastern paper says: A breeder of good hogs sold some pigs to his neighbor. After some time the purchaser came back, a good deal out of sorts, saying he was cheated—his pigs were going back. The breeder went to see the pigs, and found them in a rail pen, with the sky for a roof and the earth for a floor, with a few poles for a bed. He thought he would venture a suggestion or two, and asked the discouraged farmer to put them in a good warm pen and keep it clean, allowing them a moderate amount of suitable feed, and if they did not come out all right he would make up his loss. Returning home he heard nothing more from them until next fall's fair, when he found the same pigs sporting red ribbons.

WEDNESDAY MARCH 23, 1887

The Canadians are still evidently preparing for a bluff game over the fishery question, but others seem to have some idea of what the result will be if they insist on what they consider to be the true meaning of the law of 1818. The New Brunswick Telegraph says, referring to the late Act passed by Congress:

We venture to assert that the full gravity of the situation has not dawned upon this community. Our neighbors have resorted to the last alternative next to war. War itself must in time result from enforced non-intercourse between two communities, situated as the Dominion and the Republic are. Shall we, in the face of such conditions, go on enforcing the customs regulations as to American fishing vessels which were applied last year? If so, shall we have non-intercourse with its penalties, as above, brought on. We believe the President will act and if so, we are face to face with the international crisis of the gravest character.

Los Angeles merchants are on the war-path and talk of combining against the merchants of San Francisco, and hereafter purchasing in the East. The feeling grew out of the recent action of the San Francisco Board of Health, in quarantining against San Pedro, the seaport of Los Angeles, on account of small-pox. Many stories have of late months been circulated in Central and Northern California antagonistic to the interests of Los Angeles and its environs, whose citizens naturally regard the action of the San Francisco Board as an effort to fasten an official stigma on their section.

The Secretary of the Treasury has just passed upon several small claims for Indian depredations which took place in Washington Territory over 30 years ago. Many citizens of Nevada are interested in like claims, some of which have been pending quite as long.

Ex-Senator Eaton, of Connecticut, is represented as having said in Chicago the other day that if Allison of Iowa is nominated in 1888 for the Presidency he will be elected. Mr. Eaton is a Democrat. Grover is losing cast with the chiefs of his party.

The Inter-State Commission.

WASHINGTON, March 22.

The President has appointed the following Inter-State Commissioners: Thomas M. Cooley, of Michigan, for a term of six years; William R. Morrison, of Illinois, for a term of five years; Augustus Schoonmaker, of New York, for a term of four years; Aldace J. Walker, of Vermont, for a term of three years; Walter L. Bragg, of Alabama, for a term of two years.

The fact that Mr. Cooley's name heads the list does not necessarily indicate that he will be Chairman of the Commission, as it must elect its own Chairman. Cooley was recently appointed by Judge Gresham receiver of New York State.

Mr. Bragg has been a leading Democrat of Alabama for some years. In 1881 he was made President of the Alabama State Railroad Commission, and served in that position four years, during which time many important questions arising between the railroads and their customers were satisfactorily adjusted.

Mr. Morrison's public services are well known.

A Lower Court Reversed.

WASHINGTON, March 23.

United States Attorney, Robert B. Smith, of Montana, has advised Commissioner Sparks, through the Attorney General, that the Supreme Court of that Territory, has reversed the decision of the District Court in the case of the U. S. vs. Williams and Smith, in which the Government sued for $112,000 for timber trespass. The Lower Court decided against the Government, but on an appeal, Judge McLeary overruled the points of law raised and held that the Government was entitled to recover.

The Buffalo Fire Victims.

BUFFALO, N. Y. March 23.

Work at the ruins of the Richmonde Hotel was continued this morning. No more bodies were found. William Thompson, of Erie, and F. D. Johnson, of Toronto, reported missing in the previous lists, are safe. This leaves unaccounted for J. C. Pratt, of Albany, W. H. Shepard, of Cleveland and H. Perry, of Welland, Ontario. Nothing further has been heard regarding Robt. S. Boyd, of the American Bell Telephone Co., of Boston, and his friends believe he was one of the victims of the fire.

Referring to the fact that Queen Victoria has allowed Lady Randolph Churchill, an American girl, to act as one of her waiting maids, the Carson Appeal says:

We are really glad to see the Queen giving American girls a chance. There is no reason why good American girls could not act as waiting ladies, chambermaids, and even cooks in the royal kitchen. The Queen has done a sensible thing, and as long as she keeps up wages to anything like a decent standard her relations with American maid-servants ought to be harmonious.

Shot His Deaf Aunt.

A young man named Gordon Clark, at San Rafael, Cal., Sunday morning, was awakened by some one in his room, and after receiving no reply to his demands to the intruder to make known the cause of his visit, fired his pistol. THE MOORE SENSATION.

Preliminary Hearing of the Case Before Justice Young This Afternoon.

The hearing in the case against L. J. Moore, charged with the murder of his daughter Alice, was commenced in Justice Young's Court this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The State was represented by District Attorney Evans and the defendant by Judges King and Webster. The first witness called was the reputed wife, Mrs. Laura A. Moore, a woman 52 years of age, with silvered hair. She stated how, some 25 years ago, she ran away from her husband, Wm. Blackstone, to whom she was married in Portland, Or., in April, 1853, and went with Moore to Vancouver, Washington Territory. They afterwards lived as man and wife in Walla Walla, W. T.; Yreka, Cal.; Humboldt county, this State; Portland, Oregon; The Dalles, W. T.; Silver City, Idaho, and some five years ago they came to Glendale Township, this county, where they have since lived. During those years she bore five children to Moore, the oldest of which is 22 years.

District Attorney—How did you come to run away with Mr. Moore? Answer—He coaxed me away. He said he had a good home for me, and I found he had none.

Question—During all these years that you lived with Moore, was the marriage ceremony between he and you ever performed? Answer—I do not know of any. He always said I was not his wife. There was some kind of a ceremony performed the night I ran away with him. It was by a Methodist minister.

Q.—How long did you live with Blackstone? A.—Seven years.

When the District Attorney commenced to inquire of the witness about her life and that of Moore and their children in this county, Judge Webster requested that he be allowed to cross question her, which was granted. This was in progress at 2:30 o'clock.

LATER—At half-past 3 o'clock Mrs. Moore was engaged in telling the Court how Alice was killed by her father on the night of April 1, 1855. She said he had been shearing sheep and did not come home until about 8 o'clock; that he whipped Alice brutally, then ate his supper; that while eating, Alice said it was the last whipping he would ever give her; that after finishing his supper he knocked her down and fell upon his knees on her breast; that the girl cried for help, and her brother, Lafayette, going to her relief, was knocked aside; that the witness ran out of doors and cried for help; that afterwards she entered the kitchen, where the act was committed, and found Alice dying.

It being 4 o'clock the reporter was obliged to withdraw. The testimony was being written down as given.

District Court.

The following business was transacted in this Court to-day, Judge Bigelow presiding:

The petition of J. C. Hagerman for letters of administration upon the estate of Jerry Schooling, deceased, came on for a hearing, and upon the proof presented the Court ordered that letters issue as prayed for, said administrator to give bonds in the sum of $1,800.

In the matter of the guardianship of Myrtle L. Ward, a minor, the application of O. W. Ward for letters of guardianship was heard, and it was ordered that the letters, as prayed for, issue to the said O. W. Ward upon his filing a bond in double the amount of the property of said minor—to wit, $12,719.

In the estate of Lucius Cox, deceased, the hearing of the final report of the administrator of said estate was heard, and upon the testimony presented, the Court ordered that said final report be affirmed and the account approved; that the residue of said estate be distributed among the creditors, and the administrator discharged.

Or Ditch Company vs. W. P. Vanmeter—Upon the stipulation filed it was ordered that the plaintiffs take judgment as prayed for.

Dull Times at Eureka.

Times are reported very dull in Eureka. The Richmond furnaces are idle, and will probably not be fired up again before the 15th of May or the 1st of June. The Eureka Con. Company is running but one furnace. It is believed another will be fired up within 30 days. Fully 20 people left the town on Monday last to seek homes and employment elsewhere. Many of the old-timers are confident of seeing good times there again before long, some very promising development work being done in several of the mines of the District, among them the Jackson, where a number of tributaries and 20 miners on day's pay are employed.

The N. & C. Railroad to be Extended.

Colonel E. L. Heriot, Superintendent of the N. & C. Railroad, telegraphed from New York to-day that the grading on the extension from Morau to commence on the first of April. It is proposed to extend the road 55 miles this season, and also to take up the first 10 miles of track out of Reno and put down steel rails, which including the steel needed for the extension, has already been purchased. E. C. McClellan, the civil engineer, will leave here on Friday with a corps of assistants, to make the necessary survey.

PERSONAL.

Senator Evan Williams went below last evening.

General R. M. Clarke, of Carson, is in town to-day.

Daniel Meyer, the San Francisco banker, is in town.

H. W. Higgins returned this morning from San Francisco.

Judge Belknap, of the Supreme Court, went below last evening.

Hon. W. J. Hank, of Wells, passed west on last evening's overland.

Attorney General Alexander arrived from the State Capitol last night.

P. W. Cunningham, the stableman and lumber dealer of Winnemucca, came in on last evening's express.

L. Brooks, of the San Francisco, cattle buying firm of Hayes, Carrick & Co., arrived from below on this morning's express.

Judge Rising and daughter arrived from the Comstock last evening. The latter left for the Bay and the Judge returned to Virginia this morning.

E. Wilcox, foreman of the Richmond reduction works at Eureka, and his wife, were passengers on last night's express train for San Francisco, where they will visit for three or four weeks.

CHEEK THE NEXT ATTRACTION.

Seats are now on sale for the performance of "Cheek" at the Nevada Theater Friday evening. The piece is very highly spoken of by the press wherever produced by Roland Reed and his excellent company. Speaking of his appearance in that city, the New York Tribune says:

On Monday night, Roland Reed made his réentrée as Dick Smythe, the nervous hero of Marsden's "Cheek," to a full house. The comedy is very laughable, and its humorously element is relieved by the introduction of certain dramatic episodes. The character of Smythe is as original to the stage as Bardwell Slote, or Samuel of Posen, and Mr. Reed plays it with a rare sense of what constitutes genuine fun. Throughout the evening, while he was on the stage, the audience laughed continuously. Reed's songs, particularly "I'm a perfect New York Dude," made hits, and were loudly demanded. The Star has elaborated his performance greatly since we saw him last at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, and it is even more exhilarating and enjoyable than it was.

A Childless Centenarian.

The Modoc, Cal., Independent says: On Thursday evening of last week Samuel K. Matney died at the residence of Wm. Cantrell in Jess Valley at the remarkable age of 103 years. We are informed that the old gentleman was conscious to the last, and was aware that his end was approaching. A few hours before his death he talked with those about him; he told them that his race was nearly ended, but said he was ready to go and remarked: "I haven't been a very bad man. I never did any thing worse than kill Indians, and I don't believe that will be held against me. I had to do it." This ends a remarkable career. Uncle Sam's or Tule Dad's history is too well known to our readers to need repetition. He has lived among us for a long time, and no one can say a word against him. He was never married, and we do not know that he has a near relative living.

Happiness.

In order to secure happiness the first thing is to determine in your own mind what you want to make you happy. When you come to boil the list of desirable things down to the lowest reasonable limit, you will be surprised to find how short it is. There are three things that should always head a man's list: A good wife, a pleasant home, a prosperous business. Are these not within the reach of every sober, intelligent man? Too many of us imagine that we want more, much more, than less, but whatsoever is more than these is abominable, excessive. The list, as made out by the average young man on the impulse of the moment, would be different. An immense business, a magnificent home, a brilliant wife.

Ladies.

In delicate health and all who suffer from habitual constipation, will find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, more easily taken, and more beneficial in effects than any other remedy. It acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, kidneys, liver and stomach, and does not sicken or debilitate. For sale by Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Dolds and Coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should警 every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all afflictions of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. F. Sweetser, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—

"Medical science has produced no other antiseptic so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation of so great value as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It easily breaks up colds and other severe coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S

Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numerous instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and even acute Pneumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.
